

"So Long"
music from "If I Could"
written by Stephen Harris, Jason Oettel and Luke Reynolds (Blue Merle) new lyrics by An-Dinh Nguyen

I'll be there
But you'll be here, a song without a harmony.
I want to stay
But always close together means never free.

When we're on,
We vaporize a world we barely need.
Far apart,
Less likely I'll burn up or make you bleed.

Let me wave so long to you.
The distance seems so long to you.
But know I'll still so long for you.
Yeah, oh.

Stretch your arms,
Reach across the point where our paths diverge.
My naked eyes
Will absorb your truest colors as they emerge.

Have me trace
To you instead the warmth I feel as sun and fire.
Greater space
Will leave us cozy embers of wild desire.
Help me keep down desire!

Let me wave so long to you.
The distance seems so long to you.
But know I'll still so long for you.
Yeah, oh.

You'll radiate your vibrant love.
You'll travel fast, through smoke and haze.
You'll penetrate into my soul.
You'll hover close and fill my days.

I'll hear your music in my dreams.
I'll sense your sorrow as it fades.
I'll seize your message from the stars.
I won't feel far.

No, no.
You'll be in the stars.
Oh...

Let me wave so long to you.
The distance seems so long to you.
But know I'll still so long for you.

Yeah, oh.

Let me wave so long to you.
The distance seems so long to you.
But know I'll still so long for you.
Yeah, oh.
Oh...

You'll be here
And I'll be there to pick up your melody.
